Two Georgia police officers have been fired after police released the footage of the encounter where two Gwinnett County cops kicking a black college student during a traffic stop.

According to a police report, 21-year-old Demetrius Hollins was pulled over near Lawrenceville for changing lines several times without signaling. When cops stopped him, Hollins was seen on video standing with his hands raised before one of the officers was seen punching the motorist in his face, and the second cop racing to the scene later, only to stomp Hollins in his face.

The 21-year-old man said he feared for his life when he saw police approach him. Hollins raised his hands up in order to let him know that he didn't have anything where he could hurt him, but police beat him. Moreover, after the incident cops wrote in their police report that Hollins resisted arrest and claimed that Hollins refused to place his hands behind his back and resisted arrest. Cops literally lied and had no shame.

This incident embarrassed and the Gwinnett County police and all law enforcement. They should be held accountable for their actions. Resignation is not the answer. We did not hear any criminal charges, even though they admit the cops broke the law. Where is the justice? FINALLY! TWO GEORGIA POLICE OFFICERS HAVE BEEN FIRED AFTER VID...
